PROFILE

My name is Ashutosh Bhausaheb Palhare. I am from Deogad. I am pursuing my diploma in computer engineering from dnyaneshwar polytechnic.

I have done my mobile app development & web development internship from well-known firm AKJ Digital with great work exposure in flutter and dart language.

My work pressure handling skill help me a lot in internship to manage work in well manner.

I like learning & discovering new thing about technology. I am very interesting to lead & help people or students. Also to increase my professional network and help more students I started online coding classes for beginners where I am helping students.
